

World Book Day - Friday 7th March 2025

Dear Parent/Guardian,

We are very excited to take part in World Book Day 2025 in a joyful celebration of all things literary.

Dress up day

Children are invited to dress up as a book character (or wear muffin) on Friday 7th March. 'Best dressed' children will be celebrated in a book-themed worship at the end of the day.

Book in a box

To create a sense of curiosity about books, we are asking families to work together on a creative family project over half term. This year, we will be running a competition for a 'Book in a Box'. The idea is to take a favourite story and use your artistic skills to represent the story and character in a box. Please email a photograph of your entry to your child's class teacher and bring it to school on Thursday 6th March. We are asking for one 'book in a box' per family, so there is no need to make more than one (unless you want to). Here are some amazing efforts from a previous year for inspiration. Can you guess these stories?

We can't wait to see what the children come up with!
