Come along to one of our venues this half term for lots of family-friendly events and activities, many of which are FREE! Now the weather's improving, there's plenty of fun to be had at the refurbished Bursledon Windmill and lots of outdoor activities at Basing House ruins and grounds. Plus there are always exciting trails and make-and-takes available at all of our venues.

MAKING A SPLASH

26 MAY – 7 JULY

THE GALLERY, GOSPORT
DISCOVERY CENTRE

Featuring a magical marine scene, the local community, individuals and groups of all ages have worked hard by crocheting, knitting and crafting to create this exhibition. The scene is still growing and you are invited to add your work to it while it is still there! Whilst you're in the building, you can visit the Play Gallery, an interactive play area for younger visitors, and drop in to SEARCH to see close up and touch some of the seaside specimens in the museum's collections which link to Make a Splash. All free, donations welcome.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL DIG PITS

29 MAY – 25 AUGUST

BASING HOUSE, BASINGSTOKE

As well as the Basing House ruins and grounds, walled garden, museum, Basing Mouse trail for kids and more, come along to Basing House this half term and enjoy a fun, hands-on children's activity at the Dig Pits in the Basing House grounds! During an hour long session, you will be shown the basics of archaeology, get the opportunity to dig for authentic historical artefacts and be encouraged to think about what these objects can teach us about the past. Limited tickets available per session, please book early to avoid disappointment.

CREATIVE SPRINGTIME

30 MAY

BURSLEDON WINDMILL

Get creative this May half term with green man mask making using leaves collected from the woods for printing, rubbings and drawing before mounting on card and making a beautiful butterfly print. There will also be a green man trail to follow round the site. You won't want to miss our Lazy Summer Day event on Saturday 16

June either. We will have a fête feel to the windmill, with craft stalls, local WI cake stand and gardening club; plus to celebrate strawberry season, there will be historic photos of the strawberry industry in the local area on display, yummy fresh local strawberries for sale and lots of fun, strawberry related crafts for the kids to enjoy.

There's so much going on this May half term – don't forget to check our website for times and dates at individual venues.
