Dear Parents/Guardians,

Lower Junior Anglo Saxons

After Easter, the Lower Juniors' topic for the first half of the Summer term will be Anglo Saxons. To kick start this exciting historical topic, we will be having an Entry Point where we will take the children back in time to life during this period, to learn about the jewellery they made, the food they ate and some stories that they told.

On Tuesday 17th April 2018, the children will be experiencing life as an Anglo Saxon as part of their entry point. For that day, the children are invited to come to school dressed as an Anglo Saxon. Please see some suggestions below of what the outfits could look like. If possible, to make the final feast of the day more authentic, it would be great if the children could bring with them a goblet or tankard.

Please note: As in previous terms, your child will be bringing home their new English/Topic book to cover and label linked to our topic.

We hope you have a wonderful Easter break and we look forward to an exciting topic ahead.
